LA SALLE UNIVERSITY

La Salle University is a liberal arts institution which combines the best of all educational worlds. With 6,000 men and women attending classes, the university offers a pleasant environment within close proximity to Philadelphia's cultural, social and historic centers. Founded by the Brothers of Christian Schools, La Salle is named for St. John Baptist de la Salle, founder of the Christian Brothers. The institution, which began as a one-building academy in center city Philadelphia, is on an 8.2-acre, 43-building campus in Philadelphia's Germantown section.

Students can be assured of as much personal guidance as needed from faculty members, with a student-faculty ratio of 15-1 and an average class size of 21 students. This commitment to the individual has always been a major tenet of the Christian Brothers' goals for La Salle.

A limited number of requirements in English composition, literature, philosophy and religion provide greater opportunity for depth outside the student's major field. The number of courses required by a department of its major never exceeds 17, leaving 8-10 courses as free electives that may be used to build a strong minor or diversify one's background.

Various independent study programs provide the students with greater options. A thriving nationally-recognized Honors Program is available for gifted students. "La Salle in Europe" offers students the opportunity to spend their sophomore or junior year at the University of Fribourg, in Switzerland, while receiving full academic credit at La Salle. Programs are also available for a summer or a year of study in Spain.

Among the major buildings on campus are Connelly Library; the Roland Holroyd Science Center with facilities for study and research in Biology, Geology, Physics, and Psychology; the Olney Hall classroom building, and the College Union which houses offices for most student activities and clubs, is the main meeting place on campus.

The athletic department is housed in Hayman Hall. The facility includes the 1,700-seat Joseph Kirk Natatorium, three regulation-sized basketball courts, a 12 laps/mile suspended running track, weight training and exercise areas, squash courts and a medical training area.

La Salle students come from 700 public and private schools in 30 states and 20 countries. The dormitories house more than 1,700 resident students in 11 residence halls and two apartment complexes. More than 75% of the student body plan graduate or professional work in their fields, with more than 1,200 degrees conferred annually on day and evening division seniors.

La Salle students have been awarded 47 Fulbright grants since 1970, one of the highest numbers presented to an institution in the Mid-Atlantic region. According to a recent survey, La Salle ranked in the top 4% nationally among private undergraduate institutions originating Ph.D.s (33rd out of 877 colleges and universities).

PRESIDENT

Joseph Burke, F.S.C., Ph.D. President

Joseph F. Burke, F.S.C., Ph.D., became LaSalle University's 27th president on July 1, 1992. He had served as provost of the university since 1990.

Born in Philadelphia in 1946, Brother Burke is the first La Salle alumnus to head the 129-year-old university. He has been a member of the Brothers of the Christian Schools, the lay teaching order that conducts the university, since 1963.

Brother Burke, who holds the academic rank of professor of psychology, originally served at La Salle from 1973 to 1986 as a faculty member, chairman of the Psychology Department, and president of the Faculty Senate for two terms. During that time he also initiated the university's graduate program in Human Services Psychology and was named recipient of a Christian and Mary Lindback Foundation Award for Distinguished Teaching.

After serving as an American Council of Education Fellow at the University of Hartford for the 1986-87 academic year, Brother Burke was appointed dean of the College of Basic Studies and special assistant to the president of the University of Hartford. He returned to La Salle as provost and vice president of the corporation in July, 1990.

A 1963 graduate of Philadelphia's La Salle College High School, Brother Burke earned his Bachelor's degree in English in 1968 from La Salle College and a Master's degree in educational administration from the University of Miami. He earned a Ph.D. in human behavior (psychology and anthropology) from the United States International University.

A clinical psychologist licensed by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Brother Burke has had considerable professional experience counseling adults and adolescents, especially college students and juvenile delinquents. He served as a part-time clinical psychologist at St. Gabriel's Hall, the Christian Brothers' facility for incarcerated juveniles, from 1975-77.

Brother Burke has authored numerous articles and book chapters as well as the book Contemporary Approaches to Psychotherapy and Counseling: The Self-Regulation and Maturity Model, a comprehensive graduate-level textbook on psychotherapy, published by Brooks/Cole in 1989.

In addition to his membership on the American Council on Education's Council of Fellows, Brother Burke is a member of American Association for Higher Education, Association for General and Liberal Studies, American Psychological Association, and Eastern Psychological Association.

Robert Mullen Director of Athletics

Under Robert Mullen, Director of Athletics, La Salle University has achieved national recognition. The Explorers' men's basketball program has made six consecutive post-season tournament appearances and the women's team earned berths in the 1987-88 and 1988-89 NCAA Tournament, and the 1992 Women's National Invitational Tournament. La Salle captured the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Commissioner's Cup (symbolic of athletic excellence) in five of the six years of his tenure.

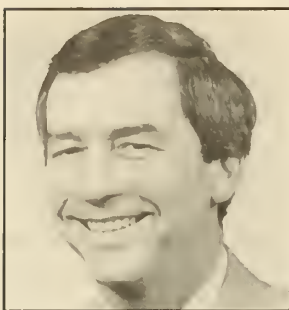

La Salle University has made many improvements in facilities and within its athletic structure, with Mullen acting as the catalyst for these changes. His efforts in moving the men's basketball home site to the Philadelphia Civic Center and his success in moving La Salle to the Midwestern Collegiate Conference and top ten conference play, have added a new era of excitement to La Salle basketball.

Mullen has been President of the MAAC and Chairman of the Philadelphia Big 5. Prior to joining the La Salle staff, he was Director of Athletics at the University of Southern Colorado and Loras College. Mullen has been the President of the NAIA Athletic Directors Association and was the College Representative to the Executive Council of the National Association of College Athletic Directors (NACDA). He also served as athletic administrator to the Goodwill Games in 1986 in Moscow. He has been on the NCAA Nomination Committee and recently was appointed to the Board of Directors of the Philadelphia Sports Congress.

Bob originally hails from the Delaware Valley, but left his home in Chester, PA, in 1948, for residence in Park Forest, a suburb of Chicago, where he obtained most of his education and athletic background. He played several sports in high school and college, although basketball was his main interest. A graduate with both a B.S., Ed., and M.S., Ed., from Northern Illinois University, Bob has been a head coach in almost every sport in the secondary level and an Athletic Director and head college basketball coach for half of the last three decades. Mullen had over 300 victories in just 16 seasons, including several trips to the NAIA National Tournament.

On the family side, Mullen and his wife, Marcia, have four children: Sherry, a Respiratory Therapist, is married with two children, living in Elgin, IL; Scott is in facility management with Spectacor, Inc., and is a former Drake University wide receiver; Kelly, a teacher in Pennsauken, NJ, and a former member of the La Salle track team, and Rob, a junior at Ursinus College, where he is a member of the football team.

◆ COACHES

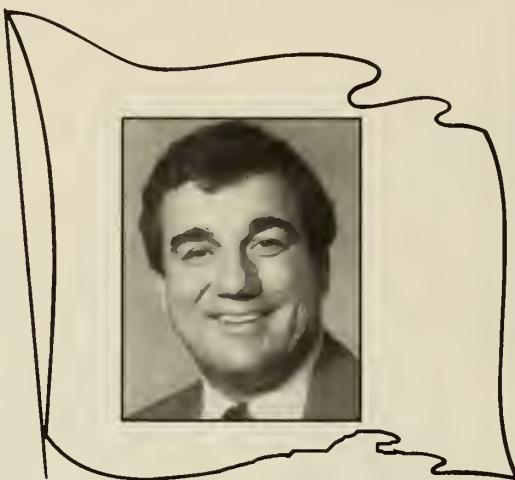

HEAD COACH JOHN MILLER

It would certainly appear that winning comes naturally to head coach John Miller. Some of his success may be luck, but most of it can be credited to his dedication, his hard work and his downright love of what he does day in and day out.

Miller enters his seventh season at the helm of the women's basketball program. In just six years, he has compiled a career record of 130-49 (.730%), which ranks him at the top of La Salle's all-time coaching record for the winningest coach in Explorer history. During the 1990-91 season, Miller recorded his 100th victory and became the first La Salle coach to ever amass 100 wins. Miller's 100th victory was also a significant milestone for the university because it was the 300th victory for La Salle women's basketball.

Last year Miller guided his squad to their eighth consecutive winning season, including four 20+ wins, a fourth MAAC regular season crown, a fourth Philadelphia Big 5 Championship, a fourth La Salle Invitational title, and an NWIT (National Women's Invitational Tournament) appearance. Miller also earned the honor of Philadelphia Big 5 Coach of the Year for the third time during his six year tenure. He has also claimed MAAC coach of the year three times and a Regional Converse Coach of the Year Award.

Before joining the LSU staff, Miller coached extensively on the high school level. In 1976, Miller was named the head coach of the boys team at Archbishop Ryan High School. During his nine-year stint at Ryan, Miller was twice named Catholic League Coach of the Year. From Ryan, Miller moved on to Monsignor Bonner High School for a year. He closed out his high school coaching career at Bonner with 150 wins to his credit.

Miller is a 1969 graduate of St. Charles Seminary, where he received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Philosophy. Miller also obtained a Master's degree in Guidance and Counseling from Villanova in 1976. Originally from Reading, PA; Miller and his wife, Emily, now reside in the Roxborough section of Philadelphia with their three-year old daughter, Katie.

ASSISTANT COACHES

THOMAS LOCHNER

ASSISTANT COACH

Assistant Coach Tom Lochner returns to the women's basketball team for his fourth season. Lochner has been John Miller's right-hand man in all phases of running the women's program at La Salle, especially in the areas of scouting, recruiting, fundraising and budget and travel management.

Lochner came to La Salle in 1987 after meeting Miller at the NCAA Women's Final Four. Prior to this, Lochner coached girls basketball at his alma mater, Bishop Gibbons High School in Schenectady, New York from 1981-87. The first two years were spent teaching the junior varsity, followed by four years as the head coach of the varsity. During his head coaching tenure, Bishop Gibbons went 88-13, winning the New York State Championship in the large division with a 26-2 mark in 1986. Lochner's team also claimed three sectional titles and he was honored as New York State Section II Coach of the Year in 1985 and 1986. In addition to his coaching experience on the high school and collegiate level, he also has extensive summer camp work, instructing youths in the fundamentals of basketball.

Lochner, a 1989 graduate of Temple University, earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Education/Athletic Administration. He also has an Associate's degree in Marketing from Hudson Valley Community College in Troy, New York.

Lochner is single and currently living in Willow Grove, PA.

LAURA REIGSTAD

GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACH

Laura Reigstad enters her first season as a graduate assistant coach, after playing four years as an Explorer. As a player, Reigstad was a tri-captain of her team during her senior year and provided leadership and solid contributions off the bench.

Reigstad was honored as La Salle's 1991-92 Philadelphia Big 5 Unsung Hero, after averaging five points, 2.8 rebounds and 17 minutes per game. She was a deadly shooter from the corner and posted a field goal percentage of .474 (64-135).

Reigstad will be an asset to the coaching staff this season due to her familiarity with the women's program. She also worked under Miller as a coach/counselor at the John Miller basketball camp.

Reigstad, a 1992 La Salle graduate, holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Elementary/Special Education.

1992-93 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL OUTLOOK

Head Coach John Miller is optimistic for the upcoming season, coming off a 25-8 record last year. The Explorers will face many challenges for the 1992-93 season namely entering a new conference (Midwestern Collegiate Conference - MCC). Miller will face the task head-on with his four returning senior starters, including All-American candidate Jenn Cole (Valparaiso, IN/Valparaiso), and a support cast that received a lot of playing experience last season..

Cole spearheads the 1992-93 Explorer campaign following an impressive junior year, culminating in being honored as a GTE First Team Academic All American. She will look to repeat as Big 5 Player of the Year and make the transition from MAAC Player of the Year to impact the MCC. Cole led the team in scoring (20.8 ppg), steals (2.3) and was second in rebounding (5.7) behind Mary Heller (Uniondale, PA/Forest City Regional). Cole has also set her sights on becoming La Salle's all-time scoring leader, as she is only 164 points from the top slot.

Joining Cole in the frontcourt will be senior Tina Tunink (Calhan, CO/Calhan). In her first year with the Explorers, Tunink chipped in 10.4 ppg last season, placing her second in scoring behind Cole. Tunink also led the team in field goal percentage (.535). While Cole controls the outside shooting, Tunink provides the threat inside with her strong moves and rebounding skills.

At the center post, Dolores Seiberlich (Hatboro, PA/Upper Moreland High School) returns for her senior campaign after averaging 6.3 ppg and 4.3 rpg last season. As the tallest member of the Explorers at 6-2, Seiberlich controls the lane with her height and strength. In addition, Seiberlich provides stability, starting and averaging 19.8 minutes per game throughout the regular season and MAAC championships last year. She missed the NWIT, due to mononucleosis, but will return healthy this season.

Rounding out the field of starters is Jenny McGowan (Glenside, PA/Bishop McDevitt). McGowan came back in top form last year after missing the 1990-91 season due to a series of jaw operations. McGowan added 7.4 ppg, 4.3 rpg and 1.4 steals to power La Salle to a 25-8 mark last season. Her speed and aggressive play should allow the Explorers to make a quick transition from defense to offense. McGowan like Tunink is capable of driving to the basket and scoring the easy "two".

Miller will also see the return of the junior tandem of Heller and Lisa Auman (Birdsboro, PA/Daniel Boone). Heller contributed 9.2 ppg and led the team in rebounds (7.2 rpg). As a sophomore, Heller posted 91 offensive rebounds, giving the Explorers several second-chance scoring opportunities. Heller's accuracy from the charity stripe ranked as high as ninth in Division I (.865). Auman, the other half of the duo, averaged 16.3 minutes per game and provided solid play with 7.1 ppg and 3.2 rpg to pace La Salle. Blooming in the later part of last season, Auman will be expected to contribute more on both ends of the court, with her skill and athletic ability.

Another challenge Miller will face is filling the important point-guard position vacated by national assist leader and 1992 graduate Mimi Harris. It seemed certain that sophomores Allyson Blue (Barnesville, PA/Mahanoy Area) and Cindy Pierce (Hammonton, NJ/Hammonton) would battle for the starting point guard slot. However, those plans will have to be altered. Blue will be medically redshirted for the upcoming season after sustaining a tear in the anterior cruciate ligament (ACL) of her left knee while playing in an area summer league game and Pierce has chosen not to return to the Explorer lineup.

The freshman class of Lori Sparling (Carmel, IN/Carmel) and Marci Willis (Newtown, PA/Council Rock) should contribute to the Explorer attack for the 1992-93 season. Sparling averaged 21 ppg, 5 rpg, 3 assists and 3 steals as the Indianapolis Area MVP. She accumulated 1540 career points and set 11 school records. Willis averaged 12 points and 12 rebounds in her senior year and also claimed numerous all-star honors.

Coach Miller and his Explorers will look to take the Big 5 crown outright this year after sharing the title with St. Joseph's last season, posting a 3-1 record.

After finishing first in the MAAC in the regular season, La Salle should provide challenging competition for new MCC opponents, Butler, Dayton, Detroit Mercy, Duquesne, Evansville, Loyola (Chicago), Notre Dame, Xavier. The Explorers will tip-off the 1992-93 season on the road against Big 5 rival Penn, before competing in the Disneyland/Freedom Bowl Tournament in Irvine, California. Possible opponents for the Explorers feature western powerhouse teams UC Irvine, Boise State and Tulane.

Returning from the west coast, La Salle will finish its Big 5 schedule, opening at home against Temple, before hitting the road again for St. Joseph's and Villanova. The Explorers will close out the month of December with the 13th annual La Salle Invitational hosted by Days Hotel. La Salle will begin the new year competing in conference games, squaring off against Notre Dame in their first MCC competition.

Senior

Valparaiso, IN

Valparaiso

As a Junior: It is no secret that Jenn Cole was the driving force behind La Salle's 25-8 record in what was an unbelievable season for her individually. Cole was named MAAC Player of the Year, after leading the league in scoring (20.8) for the entire season, and snatching four MAAC Player of the Week honors. She set a new MAAC Tournament scoring record with 80 points to eclipse the previous record of 72 held by Joann Balsamo of St. Peter's. Other honors included ECAC/Holiday Inn Division I First Team, All-MAAC First Team, MAAC All-Academic and MAAC All-Tournament Team. Her highest honor was the announcement of her selection to the CoSIDA/GTE National All-Academic First Team. Other season honors included Big 5 Player of the Week four times, ECAC Player of the Week, ECAC honor roll twice, Lady Bonnies Classic MVP and the Days Hotel/La Salle Invitational MVP. Cole set La Salle's single game scoring record with 37 points versus Penn and then reset it with 39 points versus Valparaiso. She also broke La Salle's single season scoring record of 579 held by Linda Hester by accumulating 685 points on the year. She scored in double figures in 30 of 33 games and was high scorer on 23 occasions. Cole was first on the team in steals (2.3) and second in rebounding (5.7) and assists (2.3). She only needs 164 points to become La Salle's all-time leading scorer.

As a Sophomore: Cole started all 28 games and was honored as a Big 5 and MAAC second team all-star. She was second on the team in scoring (14.8 ppg), third in rebounding (4.8 rpg) and led the team in steals with 55. She rewrote the La Salle three-point record books, claiming five records for herself and sharing another.

As a Freshman: Cole earned a starting spot midway through the year and never relinquished it. Her consistent outside shooting touch coupled with her ability to hit the three-pointer made her a threat to Explorer opponents. Her best game was a 20-point effort against St. Joseph's where she hit 8-14 FG and 4-7 three-pointers. She led La Salle in 1989-90 from the charity stripe, shooting 87.5%. Cole was named Big 5 and All-MAAC Rookie of the Year.

High School: Cole finished as the Valparaiso record-holder in points with 1,083 and in rebounds with 429. As a senior, she averaged 16.7 points, seven rebounds, three assists and four steals per game while leading her team to a 22-2 record. She was selected to a third team Associated Press All-State team and MVP in the Duneland Athletic Conference. She was also a Hoosier All-State Academic Honorable Mention.

Jennifer McGowan

Guard

5-7

Senior

Glenside, PA

Bishop McDevitt

As a Junior: Jenny McGowan returned to the starting lineup after sitting out as a medical redshirt during the 1990-91 season due to a series of jaw operations. In 1991-92, she started in 32 of 33 games and was an integral part of the La Salle success formula. Penetration with the ball remains the key to her scoring game. McGowan scored in double figures 12 times and was fourth on the team with a 7.4 average. She scored a season-high 16 points twice and matched a career-high 10 rebounds versus Villanova. She had single game highs of five assists versus Butler and five steals against Penn. McGowan was selected to the Days Hotel/La Salle Invitational All-Tournament team.

As a Sophomore: McGowan averaged 33 minutes per game and played primarily from the shooting guard position. She was first on the team with 2.2 steals per game and second on the squad with 5.7 rebounds. She also dropped in an average of 10.6 ppg. Her career-high came against St. Peters when she scored 22 points. She earned honors on the La Salle Invitational All-Tournament Team and All-Big 5 second team.

As a Freshman: McGowan saw the most playing time of any rookie. She was one of just four players in 1988-89 to see action in all 31 contests. She played at both the small forward and shooting guard position and averaged 5.4 ppg and 3.0 rpg.

High School: McGowan set the Bishop McDevitt career scoring record (boys or girls) with a four year total of 1,388 points. She scored 21.1 points and added 10 rebounds, six assists and five steals per game as a senior. For her efforts, she was honored as MVP of the Catholic League's Northern Division and was voted All-Catholic first team for three straight years.

Dolores Seiberlich

Center

6-2

Senior

Hatboro, PA

Upper Moreland

As a Junior: Dolores Seiberlich started in all 30 games prior to the NWIT, and then her healthy and injury free string came to an abrupt end. She was diagnosed with mononucleosis and was forced to miss the post-season tournament. Prior to this, Seiberlich was averaging 20 minutes per game, and scored 6.3 ppg from the center position. Seiberlich's height was her biggest asset, helping her to gain both offensive and defensive rebounds along with blocked shots. Her offensive and defensive rebound comparison was 51-79, proving that she could dominate at both ends of the court. She registered a career-high four blocks in the MAAC title game. She scored a season-high 14 points on four occasions and had a season-high eight rebounds twice. She was named to the Lady Bonnies Classic All-Tournament team.

As a Sophomore: Seiberlich stepped up her game and earned a starting role in all 28 contests. She was one of only two players to remain healthy throughout the year. Seiberlich's game improved most over the second half of the season, as seen in the last 14 games, when she averaged 14.2 ppg, as compared to her season average of 7.4 ppg. In the season-ending loss to Manhattan, she pumped in a career-high 22 points to lead all scorers. She also improved her rebounding skills to 5.1 rpg. She recorded a career-high 10 boards versus Niagara.

As a Freshman: Seiberlich saw action in 19 of the Explorers 28 games. She shot at 40% accuracy rate and her best game was a five-point outing versus Loyola. She collected 10 blocks and 10 steals on the season.

High School: During her high school career, Seiberlich averaged 18.5 ppg, 13 rpg and seven blocks. She was the first girl in Upper Moreland history to surpass the 1,000 point plateau with 1,100 total points. In her senior year, Upper Moreland went 21-5 and captured the Suburban One Freedom Division Championship. She was selected as the Montgomery Newspaper's Girl's Basketball Player of the Year.

Tina Tunink

Forward

6-0

Senior

Calhan, CO

As a Junior: Tina Tunink played her first season for La Salle after sitting out a year as a medical redshirt due to stress fractures. Tunink was the key offensive complement to Jenn Cole. Cole hit from the outside and Tunink controlled the inside with her patented jump shot and strong moves off the rebound. She was second on the team in scoring with 344 points (10.4). One of Tunink's fortes is her accuracy from the field, shooting 154-288 (.535). Her most accurate outing came on an 8-8 FG and 2-2 FT performance in the first game of the season against Temple. In the MAAC title game, she went 7-7 from the field. She scored in double figures on 21 occasions. She scored a career-high 19 points against Notre Dame and had a high rebounding performance of 12 versus Iona. Tunink was third on the team in rebounding, averaging 4.8 rpg. She was named to the Lady Bonnies Classic All-Tournament team.

As a Freshman and Sophomore: Tunink transferred to La Salle from Butler County Community College (KS), where she was voted team MVP after averaging 16.2 ppg. Regionally, she was ranked second in FG% (.590) and FT% (.810). She finished second in career scoring with 901 points and third in rebounding with 403. Tunink garnered All-Conference status for two years and All-Region during her final year.

High School: Tunink led Calhan High School to two State championships during her junior and senior seasons, with an undefeated 46-0 record. Calhan's record was 86-5 during Tunink's four years.

Lisa Auman

Forward

5-11

Junior

Birdsboro, PA

Daniel Boone

As a Sophomore: Lisa Auman put together a tremendous sophomore campaign, coming on strongest in the later part of the season. She came off the bench to provide Coach Miller with two solid halves of play. Auman averaged 7.1 ppg and 3.2 rpg in just 16.3 minutes per game. She scored a career-high 18 points against Siena to lead the team to victory and versus Manhattan, she led the team with 16 points to help clinch the MAAC regular season title. She was the team's high scorer on three occasions and notched double figures in nine games. Auman grabbed a career high 11 rebounds against Colgate and 10 boards versus Loyola.

As a Freshman: Auman saw the most action of any freshman, putting in 355 minutes over 27 games. She earned two starts against Iona and Loyola and had the best two games of the year. She recorded a season-high of 14 points in both games and added a season-high eight rebounds versus Iona. As a rookie, Auman was sixth on the team with 4.2 ppg and second in accuracy (.511).

High School: Auman declared her intent to attend La Salle in the beginning of her senior year, making her the only early signee of her class. She finished her high school career at Daniel Boone with 1,285 total points, placing her 14th in Berks League history. She led her team to an undefeated 27-0 regular season and Berks League Championship, by scoring 606 points for a 17.3 average. Following her prolific senior year, Auman was named the 1990 Pottstown All-Area Player of the Year, the Berks County County Outstanding Senior Player, the Daniel Boone MVP and, in addition, she received special honorable mention on the Pennsylvania Coaches All-State poll.

Mary Heller

Forward

6-0

Junior

Uniondale, PA

Forest City Regional

As a Sophomore: The most improved player on the team, Mary Heller's dominant inside play was a key to the Explorers' success in 1991-92. She consistently placed among the top rebounders each game, providing additional possessions for the team with her offensive rebounding skills. Heller was the leading rebounder in 14 games and in nine games she tallied double figures. Her 238 rebounds were the most on the team and she was ranked among the top-five in the MAAC. Heller's free throw percentage reached number one several times in the MAAC and was as high as ninth in Division I (.865). She was named MAAC Player of the Week and also selected to the ECAC honor roll the same week. Heller posted a career-high 12 points versus Marquette and pulled down 11 rebounds for her biggest night of production. She scored in double figures 14 times. She grabbed a career-high 12 boards three times against Temple, Columbia and Iona. Heller averaged 9.2 ppg and 7.2 rpg in only 19.2 minutes per game of play. Her steadfast play earned her three starts in the NWIT in place of Dolores Seiberlich.

As a Freshman: Heller saw action in 17 games and scored at an average of 2.3 ppg for the year with her best performance of 10 points coming against Iona. She shot 5-7 from the field in a season-high 23 minute appearance. Against Loyola in the next game, Heller hauled in eight rebounds and blocked four shots — an Explorer season high.

High School: Heller came to La Salle having played only three years of organized basketball. In this short time, the 6-0 center scored 1,629 career points, taking the Northeast Atlantic Conference scoring title during her junior and senior years. She averaged 26.1 ppg in her final season, along with 14.5 rpg., 5.1 steals, 3.5 blocks and 3.2 assists. For her exceptional play, she earned a second NAC Player of the Year Award, the Scranton Times Regional Player of the Year and honorable mention on the Pennsylvania Coaches All-State poll. Behind Heller, Forest City Regional won 25 straight games, captured league and District 12 Class A crowns and a berth in the PIAA class A quarterfinals.

Sophomore

Barnesville, PA

Mahanoy Area

As a Freshman: Allyson Blue saw limited action in her freshman role, but she has shown Explorer fans what they can expect from her in years to come. Unfortunately, the 1992-93 campaign will not be her year either. Blue tore her anterior cruciate ligament (ACL) in her left knee during a summer league game and will be medically redshirted for the season. Blue's biggest assets are her quickness and ability to hit the jumper. She scored a career-high 16 points versus Colgate in a 25 minute performance. She had a stellar game against Loyola with 14 points on 6-7 FG and 2-2 FT. In her second collegiate game versus Penn, Blue pulled down six rebounds in only 12 minutes.

High School: She averaged 25.3 ppg and 7.2 rpg as a senior at Mahanoy Area high school. She also guided her team to its second consecutive class AA title in 1991. Blue finished as the second leading scorer in school history with 1,819 points. During her four-year stint, Mahanoy recorded an unbelievable 116-10 record. She was named to several all-star teams, among which included the Hazelton Standard-Speaker Anthracite first team and the Pottsville Republican first team. She was also recognized as a USA Today Honorable Mention for Pennsylvania.

Carmel

Lori Sparling comes to the East Coast and joins the Explorers after having a stellar high school career in Indiana. Sparling claimed numerous awards and honors including being named to the All-Semi State for a year, All-State twice, All-Regional three times and All-Sectional for four years. Sparling was a member of the Indiana All-Star team in which the best 13 girls of the state are selected to compete against Kentucky's all-star team. She was also a member of the East/West Indiana All-star team. Sparling's biggest honor came when she was recognized as the Indianapolis Area Most Valuable Player, after averaging 21 points, five rebounds, three assists and three steals per game her senior year. She accumulated 1,540 career points and set 11 school records including most free throws made in a season (100). She was the MVP of her team three of four years and a member of the First Team All-Conference for all four years. Sparling also lettered in volleyball and softball.

Freshman

Newtown, PA

Council Rock

Marci Willis is the other rookie that begins her first season as an Explorer this year. Willis averaged 12 points and 12 rebounds and captained her team in her senior year. She posted the most rebounds (317) of any player in the Suburban I League. Willis was selected to the First-Team Bucks County, "Golden 14," a Lower Bucks County all-star team, and the second team all-area in Trenton, New Jersey. Willis received several Player of the Week honors throughout her senior year and was a member of the First-Team in the Papiano Memorial Christmas Tournament held at Camden County Community College. She was also named the Co-MVP of her team. One of Willis' greatest accomplishments was being the first athlete at Council Rock to receive a scholarship to play basketball at a Division I school. Willis also lettered in track and field.

◆ 1991-92

◆ A SEASON TO REMEMBER

The 1991-92 campaign was quite a year for the Explorers - full of numerous team and individual honors. Sixth-year head coach John Miller led La Salle to one of its best seasons ever, as he guided his team to a 25-8 overall record.

La Salle claimed a regular season first place finish in the Philadelphia Big Five and the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC). The Explorers defeated Big 5 rivals Temple, Penn and St. Joseph's, but once again had difficulty overcoming Villanova.

In the MAAC, La Salle swept all of its opponents except one. The nemesis was St. Peter's. In the first outing in Jersey City, the Peahens dogged the Explorers by 20 points (72-52). In the rematch at Hayman Hall, the Peahens squeaked by, 67-63, and ended an eight-game Explorer winning streak. But for St. Peter's, the sweep was not yet over. The two teams would meet for a third time in the MAAC championship game. La Salle was sitting pretty as the number one seed, but St. Peter's, the number two seed, went on to post the two-point victory (73-71) and claim the title.

On an individual note, John Miller captured Big 5 Coach of the Year honors. Jennifer Cole garnered a variety of honors in the Big 5 and the MAAC. Cole was selected as both the Big 5 and MAAC Player of the Year. She also earned several other recognitions, including Big 5 First Team and Big 5 All-Academic Team and MAAC First Team, MAAC All-Academic Team and MAAC All-Tournament Team. Her biggest honor came when she was named to the CoSIDA/GTE National First Team Academic All-American. Mimi Harris was named to the MAAC All-Tournament Team and the Big 5 and MAAC Second Team.

The team started the 1991-92 season with a five-game winning streak before bowing to Villanova. The Explorers, however, bounced back and won the next three games to close out 1991 with an 8-1 mark. Five of the eight wins came in two tournaments.

The first tourney kicked off on December 6th and 7th in Olean, New York, at the Lady Bonnies Classic. In first round action, the Explorers crushed Columbia 68-35. Then La Salle went on to capture the title by routing the host team 81-69. Jenn Cole finished the game with game-highs of 30 points and eight rebounds. Dolores Seiberlich and Tina Tunink added 14 points each to the Explorers victory. Four of La Salle's five starters were named to the All-Tournament team. Cole was chosen MVP, joining Seiberlich, Tunink and Mimi Harris as All-Tournament honorees.

La Salle hosted its own Days Hotel La Salle Invitational Tournament on December 27th through 29th at Hayman Hall. For the fourth time in six years, John Miller coached his team to the championship title. The Explorers found their way to glory by defeating Colgate, Marquette and future conference foe Butler University in the title game. In the finale, La Salle led the entire game, but spoiled an 18-point lead to keep the outcome in doubt right down to the buzzer. The home team held on to record the 75-71 win. Tina Tunink lit it up for a game-high 18 points in just 19 minutes. Jenn Cole added 17 points and 10 rebounds and Jenny McGowan contributed a crucial 11 points and six rebounds. Cole was named the MVP and McGowan joined her on the All-Tournament team.

The Explorers started the new year in Indiana against Valparaiso. Unfortunately, La Salle suffered a disappointing five-point loss (95-90), but native Valparaisian Jenn Cole entertained family and friends as she pumped in an incredible 39 points and reset her own school record for the most points scored in a single game.

Despite being the only team with 25 wins that did not get a bid to the NCAA Tournament, the Explorers did receive a first-time bid to the National Women's Invitational Tournament (NWIT) in Amarillo, Texas. Unfortunately, the team was unable to secure a win and dropped three straight games (Nebraska, Wisconsin-Green Bay and Alabama-Birmingham). However, at the close of the NWIT, the Explorers played 33 games, a record for most games played in a season.

There were many other significant highlights throughout the year that deserve to be mentioned. Four of La Salle's five regular season losses were decided by five points or less. La Salle garnered poll votes from the Women's Top 25 eight times during season. The Explorers also reached the 100 point scoring plateau twice during 1991-92. Both games were played in front of a home crowd as La Salle defeated Marquette 106-88 on December 28th and Loyola (MD) 106-67 on February 1st. Finally, Mimi Harris earned the number one spot as the national assist leader averaging 9.7 apg and also became La Salle's all-time assist leader with 630.

◆ THE MCC — ITS HISTORY AND ITS AIM

The 1992-93 athletic year marks a new era for La Salle University as it enters the Midwestern Collegiate Conference. With the addition of Duquesne and La Salle, the MCC has extended its membership into the Eastern region of the country, deliberately changing the focus of the conference from regional to national.

The nine institutions that comprise the Midwestern Collegiate Conference have built their association on common academic and athletics philosophies. The MCC institutions are private universities within major metropolitan areas that have developed a niche as advocates for academic integrity and athletic achievement. Each university benefits greatly from its metropolitan location, providing business, cultural, educational and entertainment resources to the university community. Each is committed to fielding a broad-based athletics program that is nationally competitive at the NCAA Division I level.

The MCC membership includes four of its 1979 charter members, Butler University, the University of Evansville, Loyola University of Chicago and Xavier University. The University of Detroit Mercy joined the conference in 1980 as the University of Detroit prior to its merger with Mercy College in 1990. The University of Dayton entered in 1987. The University of Notre Dame, an associate member beginning in 1982, became a full-time member in 1987 after a two-year departure from the league. Duquesne and La Salle announced their intention to join the MCC December 19, 1991.

The conference quickly identified men's basketball as its flagship sport. The MCC first received automatic qualification to the NCAA Division I tournament in 1982, and the progress escalated in the succeeding years until the MCC was ranked consistently among the nation's top 10 conferences in many areas including nonconference record, strength of schedule, regular-season attendance, conference tournament attendance and NCAA Tournament success.

Originally formed as a conference for men's sports only, women's athletics were added in 1986-87. While men's basketball quickly brought national attention to the MCC, it is the commitment to broad-based athletics programs that will boost the conference into the 21st Century.

The blueprint for future success of the MCC athletics programs began in 1988 when the conference adopted a target priority sports program, establishing scholarship and scheduling requirements for three men's and three women's sports. In addition, the conference recommended minimum funding levels for coaching and recruiting budgets. The priority sports include baseball, basketball and soccer for men, and basketball, soccer and volleyball for women.

The impact of the target priority program can be chronicled by the awarding of automatic qualification to the MCC by the NCAA. In 1989, the MCC received automatic qualification to the men's soccer championship for the first time. In 1992, the conference champion was guaranteed entry to the women's basketball championship for the first time, and the baseball bid, lost for two years, was restored. This year, the conference volleyball champion will automatically qualify for the NCAA championship for the first time.

After hiring its first full-time commissioner in 1985, the MCC moved its offices to Indianapolis where the conference has contributed to the city's image as the "Amateur Sports Capital of the World." This year, the MCC will conduct its premier event, the men's basketball championship, at Market Square Arena in Indianapolis, March 11-13. Host of the 1980 Final Four and home of the Indiana Pacers, Market Square will provide an excellent venue for the eight-team tournament. In addition, the MCC will conduct three other championships in Indianapolis and will co-host with Butler University the first and second rounds of the 1993 NCAA Men's Basketball Championship at the Hoosier Dome. It will be the fifth NCAA basketball event, including the 1991 Final Four, co-hosted by the MCC.

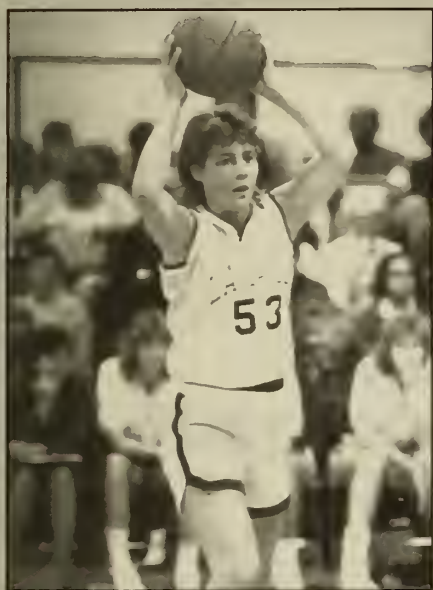

In June, the leadership baton in the MCC office was passed to its fifth commissioner, Jonathan B. LeCrone. After spending nine years as assistant commissioner at the Atlantic Coast Conference, LeCrone brings an exciting perspective to the MCC.
